

Jo'burg, South Africa....Oil & Gas

With outstanding delegate feedback, this highly successful series of African 3-day mini-MBA training events is delivered by Holmwood Consulting's Associate Angus Warren, in Johannesburg South Africa. Structured in a "business school" format it covers upstream, mid-stream and down-stream sectors addressing the key aspects of structure, technology, strategies, economics and markets in non-technical language.

The next public course is scheduled for 20-22 September 2010 at the Sandton Lodge, Rivonia. This course is also available for in-company presentation.

Book early at the Terrapinn Training website as these 2010 mini-MBA courses are sure to sell out.
